

Requirements for Completing the Form I-20 Certificate of Eligibility

In order to enroll as an International Student at Sullivan and Cogliano Training Centers, there are a few requirements and documents that must be submitted to receive a Form I-20. Listed below is the admission process and documents needed:

- Complete the Sullivan and Cogliano I-20 application:
Be sure to indicate the program you will be studying to avoid delays in processing your application.
- Submit official transcripts from all high schools, secondary and post-secondary institutions you have attended. These transcripts and certifications must be translated into English.
- Submit a copy of your passport which must be valid for at least six months after your intended period of stay in the United States.
- Submit an official financial letter or statement showing available funds for the program you have chosen. These documents must be original. International Students may provide bank statements from themselves, their parents, or sponsors. Sponsors will need to provide an original copy of bank statement showing the minimum required amount for the specified program.